PRESS RELEASE:
ANDREA ROSENBERG
NEW PAINTING AND DRAWINGS
October 20th – November 24th
Opening Reception:
Saturday, October 20th, 6-8pm

This exhibition will mark Andrea Rosenberg's fourth solo showing of large-scale works since 2008. Her work is comprised mostly of oil, gesso, acrylic, watercolor, graphite, and crayon on paper; however the largest work in the exhibition will be a painting using the same materials on linen.

Untitled 42.18, 2018
Mixed media on paper
66 x 52 inches

Rosenberg's mastery of line and media has been recognized since her studies in the early 1970's at the Cleveland Institute of Art. The human scale of Rosenberg's works, created through her improvisational working process, will be discussed in the accompanying exhibition catalogue featuring an insightful essay by Frances Colpitt, the Deedie Rose Chair of Art History at TCU.
